

Brandi joined the Carpe Diem Community Solutions team in 2020 where she serves as a Public Information Specialist managing PD&E projects. Brandi has more than 12 years of experience in community program development and engagement serving in local government and as a liaison between business and community leaders at all levels of government. She oversaw collaboration efforts advancing economic development policies to achieve healthy economies and improved quality of life. Brandi currently serves as an Honorary Commander of the Communications Squadron at Tyndall Air Force Base. Brandi holds a Masters in Instructional and Performance System Design.